

All-In-One Tours, Cruise & Receptive Services

Harborfest and Heroes

Catch A Wave: Biography Buff

It began more than a quarter of a century ago when the Norwegian Tall Ship Christian Radich came to call on Norfolk, a waterfront community that had no city-owned property on which to dock a ship. Today, tall ships from all over the world frequently call on the City of Norfolk and nearly half a million visitors gather on the downtown waterfront each year for this annual celebration.

888-283-3141

Cheer on the “Quick and Dirty” Boat-Building teams as they race to build a boat.

Shot and Score at the Virginia Sports Hall of Fame in Portsmouth

Experience the “power of the sea” at Nauticus: The National Maritime Center and awesome main deck tour of the Battleship Wisconsin

Explore the Jacque Cousteau Museum in Hampton

See over 300 watercraft in the “The American Pride” Parade of Sail

Cruise aboard the American Rover Tall Ship

Tour the Norfolk Naval Base with a sailor onboard the coach

Visit the Virginia War Museum in Newport News